[WHORNBY.TXT]

William Hornby and his wife Hannah Oldum, married 1752, came from Queen's County, Ireland to Charleston, South Carolina, prior to 1776 - some years prior are indicated. Established himself as a merchant in the city. His children, Hannah, Eleanor, William, Phillip, and Thomas, were all born in Ireland, but the birth order is not known.

The family were communicants of St. Michael's Church, Charleston, South Carolina. Records of the church were unfortunately destroyed by Gen. Sherman, during the War Between the States. Children Hannah, Eleanor and William Hornby, Jr. died unmarried.

Philip married first in 1783 Henrietta Kelsall Goldsmith, a widow, in Georgia. She died in 1786.

of Divinity, died 2 Oct 1862, Greenville, SC.<sup>3</sup> Henrietta Hornby b. 04-24-1786
[HHORNBY.TXT]

Her mother died in 1785 and she was cared for by her mother's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Bellinger Hornby, nee Kelsall of Beaufort, SC. Henrietta Hornby grew up in Beaufort but was sent to Charleston, SC to the famous school kept by Misses Hannah and Eleanor Hornby, sisters of Philip Hornby. The family had a rarely beautiful oil portrait of Henrietta Hornby painted in Charleston in 1803. Unfortunately this was destroyed when the home of Claudia Kelsall Towes was burned in Columbia, SC.

The family in Cheraw, SC still have a fine oil portrait of Claudia Kelsall Hornby (only sister of Henrietta) painted in Charleston. Henrietta was a talented and beautiful girl. The family in Cheraw say she was noted for doing exquisitely anything she attempted. An exquisite example of her work in painting and embroidery was also destroyed by the fire mentioned above, in Columbia, SC.
